

EMERGING LOCAL GOVERNMENT LEADERS (ELGL)

CAFÉ ALLEGRO

JANUARY 5, 2011

- 12:05 Member Introductions All
- 12:10 Speaker Introduction Kent Wyatt, City of Tigard Senior Management Analyst
- 12:15 Speaker Rob Cornilles, Candidate for the U.S House of Representatives

In 1995, out of a spare bedroom in their house and using funds from their savings account, Rob and his wife Allison started a Tualatin-based business called Game Face Inc, which advises professional sports franchises on how to better serve their fans and customers. Rob turned his idea into one of the most influential consulting and executive training firms in the sports industry – worldwide. Game Face excels at helping organizations their potential and bring measurable results to customers and clients.

Beyond his success in business, Rob is committed to building stronger and healthier communities here in Oregon. He serves on the Board of Directors of the Special Olympics of Oregon, the Oregon League of Minority Voters, the Japan-America Society of Oregon, Umpqua Bank Regional Division, and the Virginia Garcia Memorial Foundation. The Virginia Garcia Memorial Foundation assists in funding the Virginia Garcia Community Health Centers in Washington and Yamhill Counties which are dedicated to providing medical.

A graduate of BYU, Rob is a proud and active father in the lives of his three sons, ages 21, 18, and 15. He and Allison, his wife of 25 years, met in Newberg where they were high-school sweethearts..
