

Emerging Local Government Leaders (ELGL) Conversation with Amanda Marshall, US Attorney for Oregon

OCTOBER 11, 2012

12:00 Member Introductions	All
12:05 Speaker Introduction	Megan Messmer, ELGL Project Coordinator
12:10 Speaker	Amanda Marshall, US Attorney for Oregon
12:45 Q & A	All

Amanda Marshall is the United States Attorney for the District of Oregon. As U.S. Attorney, Amanda manages a staff of more than 100 people in three offices throughout the state.

Prior to her appointment as U.S. Attorney, Amanda worked for the Oregon Department of Justice for approximately 10 years as an Assistant Attorney General and as the Attorney in Charge of the Child Advocacy Section where she supervised the section's litigation and advice work on behalf of the Department of Human Services Child Welfare protecting Oregon's children from abuse and neglect. Prior to that, she worked as a Deputy District Attorney in Coos County, Oregon for five years where she tried over 100 jury trials to verdict including murder, arson, kidnapping, fraud, drugs, hate crime, firearms crime and sexual offenses. While at the Coos County District Attorney's Office, Amanda created and oversaw the Domestic Violence Prosecution Unit and helped develop a community response to domestic violence focusing on enhancing victim safety and offender accountability. Amanda has represented the State of Oregon in litigation in 23 of Oregon's 36 Counties.

Amanda graduated from the University of Oregon in 1992 and received her law degree and Certificate in Alternative Dispute Resolution from the Willamette University College of Law in 1995.

Upcoming ELGL Events

- October 31 Adam Davis, DHM Research
- November 14 Ken Allen, Executive Director of Oregon AFSCME Council 75
- January 10, 2013 Bill Wyatt, Port of Portland Executive Director
- February TBA Mark Zusman, Willamette Week Editor
- March 7, 2013 Tiffany Couch, Forensics Accountant, Acuity Forensics
- April TBA Greg Baker, City Manager, City of Damascus
- April 17, 2013 K.L Wombacker, General Manager, Hillsboro Baseball
- May 8, 2013 Steven Bass, President, Oregon Public Broadcasting