

ELGL Forum with Greg Baker, Damascus City Manager

Damascus City Hall

April 11, 2013

- 11:45 a.m. Networking Time
- 12:05 p.m. Introductions
- 12:10 p.m. Lightning Round with Greg Baker
- 12:15 p.m. Speaker: Greg Baker, Damascus City Manager

Greg Baker spent seven years as an assistant city manager for Kansas City municipal government and served two years as head of the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum. Greg was appointed Damascus city manager in July 2012.

His presentation will focus on:

- Reasons for coming to Damascus from the Midwest
- Transitioning from Kansas City to Damascus
- In the headlines – current state of affairs in Damascus
- Motivating a workforce during difficult situation
- The state of local government management in Oregon and Missouri

12:45 p.m. Q & A with Greg

Upcoming ELGL Events

- April 17: K.L. Wombacher, Hillsboro Hops General Manager
- May 8: Steve Bass, Oregon Public Broadcasting President
- June 20: Lake Oswego Police Chief Johnson; Clackamas County Undersheriff Kirby; and Milwaukie Police Chief Jordan
- July 18: International City/County Managers Association President Bonnie Svrcek, Deputy City
Manager, Lynchburg, VA
- October 4: ELGL Annual Conference - Kennedy School

Special thanks to Linda Richardson and Theresa Nation for assisting with today's forum.